Day 3

The third day will start with a trip to the cave monastery of the 13 th century – Geghard. This unique in its kind monastery is carved out of a rock and its surrounding cliffs are part of the monastery complex. It is important to note that Gegard is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After visiting the monastery, your way lays to the village of Garni with its only preserved example of Hellenistic architecture – Temple “Garni”. Further, in the private local restaurant owned by a hospitable Armenian family, you can taste delicious dishes of the national cuisine. And after the dinner you'll go to the city of Echmiadzin – the religious center of all Armenians and the residence of the Catholicos of the Armenian Apostolic Church. Here will be held the main Christmas liturgy of the country. You'll see the ruins of Zvartnots temple (7th century, UNESCO World Heritage Site), that was a miracle of its time. In the evening you'll return to Yerevan.

Day 5

From that day begins your exciting journey around Georgia. And it will start with a city tour around its unique capital – Tbilisi famous for its colorful atmosphere and elegant architecture. This excursion will give a great chance to fully enjoy all the bright and festive colors of Christmas Tbilisi. The tour program includes the visit to the main Georgian Orthodox Church – “Holy Trinity Cathedral of Tbilisi,” which is a real symbol of the Georgian revival and unity. Then we will walk through the cozy streets of Chardin and Leselidze, located in the old city. Once upon a time many years ago, they were filled with arcades, and craft workshops. At present, they are still crowded with lots of cafes, restaurants and shops, and the architecture reminiscent of Paris. You will also see the famous Bridge of Peace and perform automobile walk along Rustaveli Avenue and the beautiful streets of Mardzhaneshvili. You won’t also miss one of the best known and most popular attractions of the city – Narikala Fortress, located on a hill. After climbing up the hill by famous cable car, you will enjoy a breathtaking view of the city.

Meals: B, L

Day 6

In the morning, you will go to the first capital of Georgia – a delightful city “Mtskheta”. Nowhere in Georgia is there such a large number of religious and holy places as in this small town. Due to its ancient history, leaving roots deep in Bible times, this town is sometimes called the “second Jerusalem”. Now the central part of it is under UNESCO protection. Here you will visit the Cathedral “Svetitskhoveli» (XI c.) (which houses the tunic of the Lord), as well as the Monastery of “Samtavro” and Jvari Monastery (V century), immortalized in literature by Mikhail Lermontov. It is situated high on a hill offering a fabulous view of the surrounding mountains and Mtskheta. It must also be noted that Djvari has never been restored, and it has retained its original appearance. After lunch, you’ll take a look of Ananuri fortress of the XVI century, and then go to a popular ski resort in Georgia – Gudauri. Here, everyone will be able to ski. In the evening, you’ll return to the capital of Georgia – Tbilisi.

Day 7

This day you will head to the beautiful region of Georgia – Kakheti famous for its traditions and secrets of the production of Georgian wine. On this day, you will learn the secrets of Georgian wine and how it differs from the European varieties. What concerns the attractions you will visit the famous nunnery “Bodbe” where St. Nino is buried. Lunch will be organized in a beautiful small town – Signaghi – the city of love. The magnificent architecture of Signaghi in the style of southern Italian classicism is unlikely to leave anyone indifferent. Here you can see the fortress of the XI century and enjoy the views of the Alazani Valley. This charming town, filled with clean mountain air and well-known for its beautiful nature, will allow you to feel real Georgian hospitality. In the evening, you’ll return to Tbilisi, and you will be transferred to the airport.
