Detailed itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Zvartnots Airport. Transfer to the hotel. You will start your trip in the ancient 2800-year-old capital of Armenia. Some decades ago Alexander Tamanyan, the general architect of Yerevan drew contemporary plan of the city which we can see today. The warm smiles of its inhabitants give unique charm to this eternal city ancient and so young at the same time. After you will visit Tapastan winery where you can taste different type of wine.

Overnight: Hotel in Yerevan

Meals: Lunch

Day 2

This day begins with a visit to the Holy See of Echmiadzin, the religious center of all Armenians around the world. The residence of Catholicos, Supreme Patriarch of the Armenian Apostolic Church is located here. In Echmiadzin the first official Christian church was founded in the first half of the 4th century, later it was reconstructed and stands today with the whole charm of Echmiadzin Cathedral. You'll see the ruins of Zvartnots temple (7th century, UNESCO World Heritage Site), that was a miracle of its time. The tour will continue to Van Ardi wine factory and try the exquisite types of Armenian local wine. The winery belongs to the winemaker Varuzhan Muradyan who is a financier by education but has recently returned to his homeland from the USA with the intention to devote himself to winemaking. He admits that first, the winemaking was just a hobby for him: he attended some wine courses at the University of California and then went to France to learn more about the technology of French wine production. After a while, he got a burning desire to make Armenia famous not only for its cognac but also for elite wines that could take a worthy place among foreign competitors. Van Ardi wine was awarded the medals during the wine festival in Areni, as well as the brand got five gold and two silver medals in the course of the most important international venues – Mundus Vini. On the way back to Yerevan you will visit the ruins of Zvartnots Temple.
