Day 4

The day will start with an exploration of Tbilisi, the vibrant and welcoming capital of Georgia. Your journey will begin with a city tour, immersing you in the rich tapestry of this urban landscape. You'll first visit Tsminda Sameba, the principal church of the Georgian Orthodox Church and the loftiest sanctuary in the country. The historical district of Metekhi follows, home to the Assumption Church gracing a picturesque hill. Meandering onwards, you'll encounter the Bridge of Peace, an architectural masterpiece crafted by a renowned Italian architect and a celebrated emblem of the city. A cable car ride awaits, transporting you up to the Narikala Fortress, perched atop a hill. From this vantage point, the city's panorama unfolds before you in all its splendor. Continuing on, you'll venture to the sulfuric baths, a royal bath complex dating back to the 17th to 19th centuries, gracefully positioned upon the comforting embrace of natural sulfur springs. This venerable site stands as a hallmark of the Old Town's allure. A leisurely stroll along Shardeni Street, aptly named after the intrepid French traveler Jean Chardin, will captivate you with its architecture reminiscent of Parisian charm. The street is adorned with quaint cafes, captivating boutiques, and captivating galleries, creating an inviting ambiance. Your path then leads to the Juma Mosque, located on Botanical Street, where you'll also be enchanted by the Botanical Garden and a mesmerizing waterfall. A visit to Meydan Square, a central enclave within the Old Town, will offer insight into the heart of the city's history. As your journey nears its end, a visit to the elevated Mtatsminda Mount awaits, facilitated by the charming funicular railway. From this elevated perch, you'll take in the final vistas of a day rich in exploration and discovery.
