Detailed itinerary

Day 1

After your arrival at Almaty airport, you will have a transfer to the hotel and check-in. The rest of the day you can just relax after the journey. Almaty is the largest metropolis of Kazakhstan, located in the foothills of the Trans-Ili Alatau mountain range. Until 1997, it was the capital of the state and still remains a commercial and cultural centre. “Almaty” is translated from Kazakh as “the city of apple trees”. This day you'll have a full sightseeing tour around Almaty city. Your sightseeing program will include the main sights of the city: Panfilov Park, Zenkov Wooden Cathedral, St. Nicholas Cathedral, National Musical Instruments Museum, Central State Museum, Almaty's Green Bazaar, and an observatory. The bazaar appeared here 100 hundred years ago and still remains the important trading part of the city. It is an attractive touristic place full of the colorful local atmosphere where one can buy national products, smoked fish, spices, medicinal herbs, cheeses, as well as chat with good-natured friendly sellers and get to know the everyday life of Kazakhs. The tour will proceed to the Kok-Tobe well known for the tallest TV tower in the world. In the park, you will enjoy the view of the city opened from the observation area. The day will end with the short ride from the top of the hill to the centre of the city by the famous Almaty cableway.
